

CORRESPONDENCE.

ADAIR AND ADJOINING COUNTIES.

JOPPA.

After two weeks rest I will endeavor to write a few items for the News.

We are glad to say Mrs. Fannie Montgomery is much better at this writing.

The farmers in our community are very busy now planting corn, some few are done.

Mr. Geo. Coz, wife and children, of Jackman Bottom, visited at W. W. Brockman's Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Mollie Caldwell, of Portland, has returned home after a weeks pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. T. E. Waggener.

The singing at Zion the third Sunday afternoon in April was largely attended. When Prof. Stapp sings you may count on a crowd.

Our community was made sad on learning of the death of Mrs. R. L. Durham nee Miss Elrie Willis, of Greensburg, on May 4th 1905. She was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Willis. She leaves a husband, one child, father, mother, one brother, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss, but our loss is her eternal gain, she has gone to join little Carr, her baby boy who preceded her to the other shore some months ago. May the one who doeth all things well comfort the sorrowing ones in their sad bereavement.

HATCAER.

Mr. Junius Miller, of Paytonsbury, is visiting his parents here.

Miss Mattie Childers is assistant postmistress at this place.

Judge J. T. Caldwell, who has been in a hospital in Louisville, is better.

The members of Bethel church have been painting and carpeting this week.

The county Sunday school convention will be held at Shiloh on the 18th inst.

W. H. Dearen and Clay Bottoms disposed of 78 head of stock cattle at Harrodsburg this week.

Herman Shively is attending the State Encampment of the Modern Woodmen of America, at Frankfort, this week.

Mr. W. D. Burdick and wife will celebrate the anniversary of their golden wedding in June.

Atchley & Willis have placed in a mill here to saw a lot of lumber for Wm. Stoley.

J. W. and F. P. Turner are handling thoroughbred Duroc Jersey hogs on their farm. They have made several sales to different parties.

Miss Bessie Cox, who has been teaching school on Meadow Creek, closed school Friday. Patrons are well pleased with her method of instruction.

R. P. Stubbs, a prosperous merchant of Coburg, and Miss Mont Steger, an accomplished young lady of this place, were married on the 3d inst. Rev. James Edrington officiated.

The item in the News in regard to teachers having a pull is true. Nearly all of our public schools are taught by relations or some special friend. Such schemes as are practiced to secure schools are detrimental to the interest of the children. Our public school system is good, but badly abused.

I have just received a nice assortment of boy's and children's clothing, the largest line to select from I have ever had. Prices low. W. L. WALKER.

MILLTOWN.

Born, to the wife of June Kerns, recently a girl.

Born, to the wife of Charlie Thsmas, on the 3rd inst., a son.

Joe Allen Thomas bought of Mr. Gaines a horse paying $100.

Miss Lula Lindley was visiting relatives in Campbellsville last week.

Several from this neighborhood attended Fifth Sunday meeting at Cane Valley.

Mrs. Sarah McCaffree, who has been real sick for a long time is better at this writing.

Mrs. Eliza Thomas will start for Barlow, Ky., in a short while to visit her daughter, Mrs. Viola Meshev.

Misses Kate Calhoun, Vera and Mat. Thomas were the guests of Miss Bertie Thomas Sunday.

There will be an all day meeting at Sulphur Spring (Pollard's Chapel) the fourth Saturday in May.

BLISS.

Two Mormon Elders are in this part this week.

Miss Sarah Tandy is on an extended visit in Campbellsville.

Whooping cough is in its course in this neighborhood.

Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge preached at Marrowbone last Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Browning is confined to her bed with whooping cough.

Mrs. Blanche Thomas of Noblesville, Ind., is visiting Ed Cheatham on Butler's Fork.

Miss Valonia Sandidge, who has been sick for the last two months, is on the road to recovery.

Rev. Clemens, wife and little boy spent last Sunday with the family of G. Whit Flowers.

Mont Murrell, Henry and Twiman Atkins were mingling with the young people here Saturday night.

Rev. W. C. Clemens, of Columbia, delivered a sermon practical as well as interesting last Sunday at Union.

Mrs. M. J. Murrell and son, Mont, left here Wednesday for Marrowbone to attend the District Conference in session there.

Misses Lelia Dewitt, of Greenville, Annie Roberts, of Sparksville, Myrtie Staples, Ed and Leslie Staples and Garland Grissom, all of your city were here visiting Saturday night.

Misses Dewitt, Roberts and Staples, Geo. T. Flowers Jr., and Geo. Stults of your city, were at the hospitable home of M. J. Murrell last Sunday evening, at which place they partook of a bountiful supper.

John Troutman hied himself one evening over to Petit's Fork to fish, he caught a minnow and now declares he is done with fishing. Better luck next time John.

Whit Comer and family were visiting in Keltner Sunday.

Corn planting is almost over in this section and the early planted corn is coming up nicely, but is in danger of being damaged by cut worms.

Tyler Janes, who lives on Dr. W. T. Grissom's farm, happened to an accident Tuesday by breaking his right arm just above the wrist. He was riding sideways on the back of a mule on his way to work. The mule somehow shied a little, throwing him sideways over on his hands with the above result. Dr. Grissom immediately set it in place and Janes is getting along well.

Mrs. Sue Grissom who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Mell, at Greenville for the past three months, is expected to return home Tuesday.

BRYANT'S STORE.

W. J. Gabbart and wife were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Montgomery, of Joppa, Sunday.

Elder Bottoms filled his regular appointment at Shiloh, Saturday night and Sunday forenoon.

There is going to be a lot of the next generation who will credit their inheritance to the Ginseng business.

Our hustling farmers throughout the entire community are busy from early dawn till darkness.

Mr. John Blair is having his residence painted which adds much to the appearance of the place.

A fine rain fell here Friday night which was a great benefit to all growing crops.

OZARK.

James Turpin will leave for Ill. in a few days.

There will be a basket singing at Zion the 4th Sunday.

Mrs. Fannie and Mary White were in town Thursday.

Mr. John White sold to Calvin Maupin, one cow, price not known.

Tarter & White have been taking in the country around about here with their moving picture show.

Mrs. Sallie Wolford and her son, Meldrom, visited at Mrs. Fannie White's Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Ross and brother Winfield left for Mt. Vernon Ill., a short time ago. They are much pleased with their new home.

The farmers are about through planting corn. They rejoiced very much about the good rain that fell Saturday.

The Sunday-School at this place is getting along nicely. We would be glad if more of our good citizens would come out and assist in the good work.

Mrs. Nora Brinkley of Ill., has been visiting her relatives of Old Kentucky. She returned to her home a few days ago accompanied by her cousin, Willie May Acre.

Man's Unreasonableness is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all of her household duties." Guaranteed by T. E. Paull, druggist, price 50c.
